November 2018

Dear Brookwood Families,

I hope this letter finds you and your families well. I'd like to begin with a Special "Thank You" to all of our PTO and VOLUNTEERS, who helped to make our Trunk-or-Treat Spook-tacular!

We have a busy month ahead of us and I hope we can all enjoy it with good health. As we leave October behind us, November will be filled with activities that will lead us right into conferences and the holiday season.

We hope to see all of you during CONFERENCES, scheduled on 11/26, 11/27, 11/28, 11/29 & 11/30. We have 1:00 PM dismissal each conference day.

In the spirit of Thanksgiving, we often pause to reflect on the many things for which we are thankful. Among the many in my life are your wonderful children, the outstanding and dedicated teachers and staff, and your support and continuing cooperation in making our school a very special place for children.

All of us here at Brookwood Elementary wish you and your families the happiest Thanksgiving ever!

Sincerely,

Mrs. Cubberly

exemplify our

"Code of Conduct"

I am respectful.

I am responsible.

I am safe.

I am prepared.

RESPECT - Respect is a positive feeling or action shown towards someone or something considered important, or held in high esteem or regard; it conveys a sense of admiration for good or valuable qualities; and it is also the process of honoring someone by exhibiting care, concern, or consideration for their needs or feelings.

RESPONSIBILITY - Becoming a responsible person means being able to consciously make decisions, conduct behaviors that seek to improve oneself and/or help others. Most importantly, a responsible person accepts the consequences of his or her own actions and decisions.

SAFE – Feeling safe is a basic human need. Students need to feel safe and secure in order to learn to want to participate in their learning. Therefore we: keep our hands, feet and objects to ourselves, walk in hallways, hold the banister going up and down the stairs and follow adult directions.

PREPARED - Being "prepared and ready to learn" promotes an environment in which each student will develop a willingness to contribute to the community and world in which they live. We aim to educate our young people to aspire for themselves and inspire others in their achievement.
